A Picture of Europe.

The Will o' the Wisp, an English paper, satirical and conservative, has this pleture of Europe:

Russia coveta, Turkey fears; Austria ponders, Italia cheers.

Belgium-Holland, Wait in dread; Denmark's palsied, Spain is dead.

France lies bleeding. Prussia soars; Britannia shuis her eyes And-snores Rules of Table Etiquette.

The politeness has its origin in Christian charity and kindness, and all standard rules of etiquette were founded for the greater convenience and happiness of the members of society. Although the reasons may not be obvious at first sight, they exist, and will be apparent on careful consideration.

1. Do not keep others waiting for you, either at the beginning or close of the meal. 2. Do not sip soup from the tip, but from the side of the spoon. 3. Be careful not to drop or spill anything on the table-cloth.

4. Keep your plate next; do not heap all sorts of food on it at once.

In passing your plate to be rehelped, retain the knife and fork. 6. When asked for a dish, do not shove, but hand it. While drinking, do not look around. 8. Instruct the servant to hand the cup at the left side, so that it may be received by the right hand. 9. Do not drink your tea or coffee without first removing the teaspoon from the cup to the saucer. 10. Use the knife for cutting only; never put it to the lips nor in the mouth.

11. Break your bread into small pieces and rest them on your plate while spread-

12. Do not eat too fast; besides giving one the appearance of greed, it is not healthy. 13. If you find anything unpleasant in your food, put it aside as quietly as possible, without drawing the attention of others to it. 14. Do not open the lips nor make any unnecessary noise in the chewing. 15. Do not touch the head.

Do not rest the elbow on the table. Do not speak with the mouth full. 18. Brush the table neatly before bringing on the dessert.

19. Be thoughtful and attentive to the wants of those about. 20. Converse on pleasant subjects with those sitting near you. 21. Do not say anything not intended for all present to hear. 22. Leave your plate with the knife and fork lying parallel, the handles pointing to

23. Never leave the table before others without asking the lady or gentleman who presides to excuse you.

Excellent Interest Rules.

For finding the interest on any principal case being in cents, separate the two righthand figures of answer to express it in doltars and cents:

Four Per Cent.-Multiply the principal by the number of days to run; separate right hand figure from product, and divide by 9. Five Per Cent.-Multiply the number of days, and divide by 72.

Six Per Cent.—Multiply by number of days; separate right hand figure, and divide Eight Per Cent .- Multiply by number of days, and divide by 45.

Nine Per Cent.—Multiply by number of days; separate right hand figure, and divide Ten Per Cent .- Multiply by number of days, and divide by 36.

Twelve Per Cent.—Multiply by number of days; separate right hand figure, and divide Fifteen Per Cent .- Maltiply by number of days, and divide by 24. Eighteen Per Cent.—Multiply by number of days; separate right hand figure, and divide by 2.

Twenty Per Cent .- Multiply by number of days, and divide by 18.

Twenty-Four Per Cent.—Multiply by number of days, and divide by 15. CONVENIENT FOR REFERENCE.

When computing interest at four per cent. two places pointed off from the right of the principal gives the interest upon it for ninety days.

At 5 per cent. (two places pointed off) ... 72 days.

At 6 per cent. (gives the interest for) ... 72 days.

At 8 per cent. do do do ... 60 days.

At 8 per cent. do do do ... 45 days.

At 10 per cent. do do do ... 46 days.

At 115 per cent. do do do ... 56 days.

At 15 per cent. do do do ... 56 days.

At 15 per cent. do do do ... 56 days.

At 15 per cent. do do do ... 56 days.

At 15 per cent. do do do ... 15 days.

At 16 per cent. do do do ... 15 days.

Hann on !- Hold on to your tongue when you are just ready to swear, lie, or speak harshly, or say improper words.

Held on to your good name at all hazards, for it is of more value to you than gold, high places, or fashionable attire.

Hold on to the truth; for it will serve you well, and do you good throughout eternity. Hold on to your virtue; it is above all price to you in all times and in all places.

Hold on to your good character; for it is, and always will be, your best wealth. Hold on to your temper when you are angry, excited, or imposed upon.

THIRTY-FIFTH PARALLEL ROUTE.

The Shortest and Best Route from the Southern and Southeastern States to the States and Territories of the Pacific.

The Only Route Over Which Large Trains and Herds of Stock Can be Driven, Without Suffering and Loss, from Lack of Food and Drink.

Plenty of Grass, Water and Wood on the Entire Route.

Now, that the new wagon-road from Prescott, Arizona, to Albuquerque, and Santa Fe, New Merleo, is completed, and open to travel, we desire to make public the facts that the distance between the Rio Grande and California has been shortened nearly one hundred miles by said road; that ise entire route, which passes near the Thirty-fifth Parallel, is, in every respect, far superior to any other southern route, for the reasons that the whole region of country through which it passes, is bessed with a mild, healthy climate; is well supplied with good water, grass and wood; is partially fro from hostile Indians, and is, besides, nearly, if not quite 300 miles shorter than any other isouthern route.

Southern route.

Hereafter, Prescott, and all the towns, settlements and military posts of Northern Arizona, will receive their supplies from the East, over this route, and we expect to see a steady stream of enigration and large droves of stock pass over it. As high as 1,200 head of cattle have been driven, in one band, over the old route, ris the San Francisco Mountain, and as the new route is better rapplied with water than the old, twice that number of stock can be driven over it, and find plenty of piled with water than the old, twice that number of stock can be driven over it, and find plenty of water, in the dryest season of the year, as will be seen by the following prince of Distances, Etc., which we have compiled from Government explorations and other reliable sources:

Starting from Albuquerque, New Mexico, (on the Rio Grande river), where all reads from the end of the Kansas Pacific Kallway, (which, at present, is about 450 miles east of Albuquerque) units, as well as those from Tevas, Louislana, Arkansas and the other Southern States, the read strikes to the first camping place.
